Dr. Hudson is a Teaching Associate Professor of International Relations in LAIS. He specializes in religion and politics in Africa, with particular expertise on the role of prophetic Christianity as an agent for social change in historically deeply divided societies.

Dr. Winston Grady-Willis is professor and chair of African and African American Studies at Metropolitan State University. His book, Challenging U.S. Apartheid: Atlanta and Black Struggles for Human Rights, 1960-1977 (Duke), provides a gendered examination of the contemporary Black Freedom movement.

Rev. Dr. H. Malcolm Newton is the founding President of The Urban Tikkun Centre. He is a graduate of Cheyney University (HBCU), Dallas Seminary, and Harvard University, and he is the author of numerous books, including the forthcoming The Urban Kingdom of God and Green Faith.
