

YOUNG'S ENVIRONMENTAL SYMPOSIUM

SOCIAL PERSPECTIVES ON THE FLINT, MICHIGAN WATER CRISIS

KEYNOTE SPEAKER: DR. MARC EDWARDS

OCTOBER 18TH AND 19TH

FILM SCREENING

OCTOBER 19TH, 2017 | 7-9 P.M.

“Noah: Rising from the Ashes in Flint”

“If there’s one thing that people should know about Flint is that we’ve been survivors since day one. I want Flint to come back ... It’s time to wake up. It’s time to grow up. It’s time to take our city back before somebody takes it from us.” - Noah

WHERE

COLORADO SCHOOL OF MINES
GREEN CENTER, FRIEDHOFF HALL

924 16th Street
Golden, CO 80401

SYMPOSIUM DAY 2:

Keynote Speaker Dr. Marc Edwards, Citizen Science and the Flint Water Crisis: Triumph, Tragedy and Misconduct

PANEL DISCUSSION

DANA ROMANOFF

“Noah” Filmmaker
(Hennebach Artist in Residence)

MARGARET KATO

Executive Director,
Genesee County
Habitat for Humanity
in Flint, MI

DR. MARC EDWARDS

Environmental scientist/engineer
who was a key player
in bringing the Flint crisis into focus.

Charles P. Lunsford Professor of Civil and Environmental Engineering at Virginia Tech

PASTOR MCCATHERN

Local Flint Religious Leader